Introduction

Context and History

California Standards for the Teaching Profession

The California Standards for the Teaching Profession (CSTP) are intended to provide common language and a vision of the scope and complexity of the profession. They define a vision of teaching as well as professional roles and responsibilities from pre-service teacher to experienced practitioner. The standards are not set forth as regulations to control the specific actions of teachers, but rather to guide teachers as they develop, refine, and extend their practice.

The current version of the CSTP (2009) has been developed to respond to changes in the context for teaching and learning in California over the past decade and to address the pressing needs of an increasingly diverse P–12 student population. Particular attention has been paid to revising language related to student learning, assessment practices, and equitable pedagogy designed to address English learners and students with diverse learning needs. This updated version of the CSTP also looks forward to the future of teaching and learning in the 21st century where traditional classrooms and contexts are likely to be transformed through innovative technologies and globalized connections. The CSTP continue to set forth a vision for the teaching profession—one that is sustainable, engaging, and fulfilling for teachers in all stages of their careers.

Continuum of Teaching Practice

California's Continuum of Teaching Practice is based on foundational work of the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC), the California Department of Education (CDE) and the New Teacher Center (NTC) over the past 15 years. The 2010 Continuum of Teaching Practice is aligned with the CSTP, builds on California's pre-service Teaching Performance Expectations and sets forth a description of teaching that respects the diverse ways teachers pursue excellence in teaching and learning.

The Continuum of Teaching Practice is a tool for self-reflection, goal setting, and inquiry into practice. It provides common language about teaching and learning and can be used to promote professional growth within an environment of collegial support. Self-assessment data can support teachers in making informed decisions about their ongoing development as professionals. District and induction program leaders can use teacher assessment data to guide, support and accelerate professional growth focused on student achievement.

Since 1992, Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment (BTSA) Induction Programs in CA have been using formative assessment to support and inform teachers about their professional practice as they reflect and improve upon their teaching as part of a continuous improvement cycle. Formative assessment promotes and develops professional norms of inquiry, collaboration, data-driven dialogue, and reflection to improve student learning and is characterized by an inquiry cycle guiding teachers to Analyze Data and Reflect—Plan Instruction—Teach and Assess.

A formative assessment system has three essential components: standards, criteria and evidence of practice. Standards refer to the California Standards for the Teaching Profession (CSTP) and are in alignment with the P–12 academic content standards. Criteria refer to indicators of teaching practice. Evidence of practice includes multiple sources such as lesson plans, observation data, and student work analyses and is used to make valid self-assessments on the Continuum of Teaching Practice. The Continuum of Teaching Practice is one component of a comprehensive formative assessment system for teachers, based on the California Standards for the Teaching Profession (CSTP).

The Continuum of Teaching Practice is aligned to the 2009 California Standards for the Teaching Profession (CSTP):

- Engaging and Supporting All Students in Learning
- Creating and Maintaining Effective Environments for Student Learning
- Understanding and Organizing Subject Matter for Student Learning
- Planning Instruction and Designing Learning Experiences for All Students
- Assessing Students for Learning
- Developing as a Professional Educator

The Continuum of Teaching Practice is appropriately used with data collected over time and is not appropriate for use with evidence collected on a single occasion. While the Continuum of Teaching Practice may be used to assist teachers in setting professional goals and/or launching a cycle of inquiry, the Continuum is not designed for use as a stand-alone observation or evaluation instrument.

Rationale and Use

The Continuum of Teaching Practice was developed to:

- Delineate the diversity of knowledge and skills needed to meet the varied and evolving needs of students
- Support the reflective practice and ongoing learning of teachers
- Support an ongoing process of formative assessment of a teacher's practice based on standards, criteria and evidence
- Set short or long-term goals for professional development over time
- Describe teaching practice and development throughout a teacher's career
- Support a vision of ongoing learning and teacher development
- Encourage collaboration between classroom teachers, resource personnel and families, to ensure that all students are successful

Structure and Organization

The Continuum of Teaching Practice is organized to describe five levels of development. Each level addresses what a teacher should know and be able to do in the six CSTP standards. In addition to the description of teaching in CSTP 1: Engaging and Supporting All Students in Learning and CSTP 2: Creating and Maintaining Effective Environments for Student Learning, are what students would be doing at each level of practice.

The levels do not represent a chronological sequence in a teacher's growth, but each row describes developmental levels of performance. The levels become increasingly complex and sophisticated and integrate the skills of previous levels.

In the first column, under the language of each element, is a space to record evidence of practice as related to that CSTP element. Teachers reflect and describe practice in terms of evidence prior to self-assessing in order to make valid and accurate assessments.

Reading and Self-Assessing on the Continuum

The process of assessing on the Continuum of Teaching Practice can be done individually or collaboratively. Begin by reading the element and thinking of evidence of practice related to that element. Record evidence in the space provided underneath the element. Use that evidence to determine a starting point for assessing practice. For example, if you are a novice in regards to that element, you might begin by reading Level 1: Emerging, and then, read one or two levels to the right of that to assess practice. However, if you are experienced in a particular element, you might begin by reading Level 3: Applying, and then adjust your assessment to the left or right from there.

Any practice described to the left on the Continuum is carried across to those on the right even if not explicitly stated. Highlight the descriptions that best match current practice. Date the self-assessment. Subsequent self-assessments can be highlighted in a different color to show growth over time.

A teacher may be at Level 1 or 2 in some elements of the CSTP and Levels 3 and 4 in others, no matter how many years she or he has been in the profession. Because a teacher's growth is developmental, one may return to an earlier level temporarily if there are changes in a teacher's career, such as new course content, grade level, school, or student demographics. In fact, it is not uncommon for teachers to self-assess and find they have moved from right to left on the Continuum of Teaching Practice in response to new teaching contexts, responsibilities, challenges, or even a deeper understanding of the work.

Developmental Levels

Note: The descriptions in each of the Developmental Levels are aligned to the CSTP standards.

Glossary of Terms

The Continuum provides a common language of standards-based practice in a community of learners.

Structure

Continuum: a document describing different levels of practice or knowledge along various stages of development.

Descriptor: an individual cell, or “box,” corresponds to the developmental levels in the Continuum of Teaching Practice.

Standard: one of six areas of teaching practice that comprise the CA Standards for the Teaching Profession (CSTP).

Element: a sub-area or sub-domain of teaching practice within any of the six CSTP standards.

Level: Each level describes teaching in terms of pedagogy, instructional practices, content knowledge, learning environment, collaboration and leadership.

Concepts

Diversity: refers to culture, ethnicity, language, race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, socioeconomic background, learning abilities, and learning styles.

Equity: means ensuring learning for all students.

Pre-Assessment: Used to describe assessments that are part of ongoing instruction, as each significant new instructional concept is introduced. Pre-assessments inform teachers of a wide range of students’ knowledge and abilities in order to guide instruction.

Entry level assessment: Generally used to describe an initial assessment of competencies when a student first begins a class or course of study.

Context: Real life contexts include students’ unique family and community settings as a “mirror” reflecting the familiar world; and the broader societal, cultural and global settings as a “window” looking into the larger world (E. Style, 1996).

Culturally Responsive Teaching: Geneva Gay (2000) defines culturally responsive teaching as using the cultural knowledge, prior experiences, and performance styles of diverse students to make learning more appropriate and effective for them; it teaches to and through the strengths of these students.

Academic Language: Academic language is the language (oral and written) needed by students to understand and communicate in the academic disciplines. Academic language includes such things as specialized vocabulary, conventional text structures within a field (e.g., whole sentences, narratives, essays, lab reports) and other language-related activities typical of classrooms, (e.g., participating in a discussion, presenting an argument, comparing and contrasting, asking for clarification). (revised from PACT, 2010).

REFLECTIVE QUESTIONS

COACHING SKILLS OF MENTORING

A trusting relationship

- Using good listening skills
- Empathetic acceptance
- Congruence between body language and verbal language

Clearly defined roles and expectations

- Desire to promote the teacher's autonomy and uniqueness
- Nonjudgmental conversation
- Honesty

Linguistic skills

- Paraphrasing
- Clarifying
- Pausing and using silence
- Mediation questioning

PARAPHRASING

Paraphrasing communicates that the listener has...
HEARD what the speaker said,
UNDERSTOOD what was said, and
CARES

Paraphrasing involves either:
RESTATING in your own words, or
SUMMARIZING

Some possible paraphrasing stems include the following:

So,...

In other words,...

What I'm hearing then...

What I hear you saying...

From what I hear you say...

I'm hearing many things...

As I listen to you, I'm hearing...

CLARIFYING

Clarifying communicates that the listener has ...
HEARD what the speaker said, but does
NOT fully UNDERSTAND what was said.

Clarifying involves ASKING A QUESTION (direct or implied) to

1. Gather more information
2. Discover the meaning of language used
3. Get clarity about the speaker's reasoning
4. Seek connections between ideas
5. Develop or maintain a focus

Some possible clarifying stems include the following:

Would you tell me a little more about...?

Let me see if I understand...

I'd be interested in hearing more about...

It would help me understand if you'd give me an example of...

So, are you saying/suggesting...?

Tell me what you mean when you...

Tell me how that idea is like (different from)...

To what extent...?

I'm curious to know more about...

I'm intrigued by.../ I'm interested in.../ I wonder...

NOTE: "Why?" tends to elicit a defensive response

MEDIATIONAL QUESTIONS

Mediation questions help the colleague
HYPOTHESIZE what might happen
ANALYZE what worked or didn't
IMAGINE possibilities
COMPARE & CONTRAST what was planned with what ensued
EXTRAPOLATE from one situation to another
EVALUATE the impact

Some mediation question stems include...

What's another way you might...?

What would it look like if...?

What do you think would happen if...?

How was... different from (like)...?

What's another way you might...?

What sort of an impact do you think...?

What criteria do you use to...?

When have you done something like...before?

What do you think...?

How did you decide...(come to that conclusion?)

What might you see happening in your classroom if...?
