

Circle of Communication

Service member is recorded reading a book to their child. The video and book are sent home.

Child watches UTR video at home and follows along with the book.

Service member's morale is boosted by feedback from his/her family.

Caregiver at home captures child's reaction to UTR video in a photo or video and sends to service member.

